about us

Biosphere is not just a brand. It's a commitment to innovation, specialization, and delivering unparalleled experiences across our diverse gaming ventures. We understand that every gamer has unique needs. That's why we've divided our scope of work into 3 sub-brands, to cater to various aspects of gaming and provide support to customers at every stage of their gaming journey.

our gear

Since 2019, Biosphere (previously known as Switchit) has been supporting gamers and the esports industry with top-tier equipment. We've provided support for tournaments and training facilities, collaborating with gamers, managers, event agencies, and production companies. This has resulted in an extensive gear fleet at our disposal, available if needed in our gaming facility.
